A Council of All Beings

Many people realize, intellectually, that we are inseparable from nature and that the sense of separation that we feel is socially conditioned and illusory. The Council of All Beings workshop is a ritual, conceived by activists John Seed and Joanna Macy, which enables us to deeply experience our connection with nature, in our hearts and our bodies. Overnight tent camping welcome. Bring a vegetarian potluck dish for Saturday and snacks for the rest of the weekend. Call or e-mail convener for more info and directions.
