KC Leon Milton Birkhead (1885-1954) Papers
0280 1893-1980 [1908-1955]
115 folders, 18 scrapbook volumes

PROVENANCE:

This collection was received from Barbara Birkhead as accession 0766kc on August 24, 1993.

BIOGRAPHY:

Leon Milton Birkhead was born on April 28, 1885, on a farm outside Winfield, Missouri, fifty miles northwest of St. Louis. His first job was in a St. Louis shoe factory, for which he later became a salesman. When, in 1904, he had saved enough money to pay for his education, he began his studies at McKendree College, a small Methodist institution in Lebanon, Illinois. He graduated from McKendree with an A.B. degree in 1910, and was ordained a Methodist minister in St. Louis in 1911. Birkhead also did graduate work in theology and philosophy at Drew Theological Seminary in Madison, New Jersey, and Union Theological Seminary and Columbia University in New York, but did not complete another degree.

Reverend Birkhead held pastorates at the Maple Avenue and Wagoner Memorial Methodist Episcopal Churches in St. Louis, and the Ewing Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church in Madison, Illinois. In 1913, he married Agnes Schiereck of St. Louis, who was the youngest Deputy Collector of the Internal Revenue Service. In addition, she was the first woman to hold a position of that rank. They had one child, Kenneth. In 1914, Reverend Birkhead resigned from the Methodist Church and took a ministerial post at the First Unitarian Church in Wichita, Kansas. He remained there until 1917, when he came to Kansas City, Missouri, and began more than twenty years of service to All Souls Unitarian Church.

Reverend Birkhead was a popular, progressive figure in religious and civic affairs. He advocated women's suffrage, the use of advertising for churches, companionate marriage, and the teaching of evolution in schools. He and his wife were present at the Scopes trial in 1925, with Reverend Birkhead assisting Clarence Darrow with miscellaneous research tasks and Agnes Birkhead serving as defense stenographer. Reverend Birkhead served as technical advisor to his friend, Sinclair Lewis, during the writing of Elmer Gantry, the 1927 publication of which caused great debate in religious circles.

In 1935, Birkhead traveled to Germany, where he became alarmed at the influence of Nazism there and in the United States. He resigned from All Souls in 1939 to begin the Friends of Democracy, an "anti-propoganda" organization whose purpose was to expose hate-based groups during World War II and the McCarthy Era. Birkhead moved the Friends of Democracy operation to New York City in 1939, and he died there in December of 1954. He was survived by his wife, Agnes, and his son, Kenneth.

DESCRIPTION OF THE PAPERS:

The papers consist of a variety of materials documenting Reverend Birkhead's professional and public career. Much of the collection consists of printed materials from his churches, organizations of which he was a member, and his speaking engagements. A small amount of correspondence is also included. Records of All Souls Unitarian Church include postcards mailed to the congregation concerning upcoming sermon topics, guest speakers, and activities. There is also a log book with clipped advertisements and weekly attendance and offering figures. The Liberal Center was also a function of All Souls, and the collection contains some programs and youth newsletters concerning its activities.

As head of the Friends of Democracy, Birkhead collected many publications from the groups he was fighting against. The publications are anti-Communist, anti-Socialist, anti-Fascist, anti-semitic, pro-McCarthy, and white supremacist in nature. Much printed material generated by the Friends of Democracy is also included.

Two folders of material contain information about Agnes Schiereck Birkhead, and one folder contains correspondence and ephemeral material related to Kenneth Birkhead.

The scrapbooks consist almost entirely of clippings and are generally in fair to poor condition. They contain many loose clippings which will require further weeding for duplicates. The volumes will be microfilmed at a later date.

COPYRIGHT AND RESTRICTIONS:

The Donor, Barabara Birkhead, has given and assigned to the University of Missouri all rights of copyright which the Donor has in the Materials and in such of the Donor's works as may be found among any collections of Materials received by the University from others.
